Shelton Connecticut Inspector Honored by the American Society of Home Inspectors® for Long-Time Service

Shelton, Connecticut, May 1, 2019: John F. Koch III of Home Quest Home Inspection a local firm based in Shelton that conducts inspections of new and existing homes, was honored recently by the American Society of Home Inspectors for 20 years of membership. John has been an ASHI Certified Inspector since 1999.

The American Society of Home Inspectors, founded in 1976, is the oldest, largest and most respected international professional organization of independent home inspectors in North America. Its Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics is the benchmark for professional performance in the field.

To become an ASHI Certified Inspector, a member must meet rigorous professional and technical requirements, including the successful completion of two comprehensive exams. In addition, he or she must perform at least 250 fee-paid home inspections that meet or exceed the ASHI Standards of Practice.

John Koch III conducts existing and new construction pre-purchase, pre-listing and maintenance inspections in the Fairfield County area. Further information about John Koch's home inspections is available by calling 203-929-9900 or by visiting the inspector's Web site at HomeQuestInspection.com.
